

SIET Best Paper Award

The Società Italiana di Economia dei Trasporti e della Logistica (SIET) announces the "2025 SIET Best Paper Award" for young researchers. The prize amounts to € 300,00 in addition to a two-year enrolment-fee waiver to the association.

The award will be given to an outstanding unpublished paper, written by an author who is under the age of thirty-five. The paper must be presented at the XXVII SIET Conference that will be in Monopoli (BA), University of Bari Aldo Moro, 8th-9th September 2025 (<http://www.sietitalia.org/riunioni.htm>), in order to be eligible.

The full paper must be submitted by July 31st, 2025, to be evaluated. Submitted papers, whether theoretical or empirical, can pertain to any subject in the scientific area of transport economics and logistics.

To compete for the prize, authors must send the paper and the identity document (providing age) by email to presidenzasiet.2021.24@gmail.com and elena.maggi@uninsubria.it, writing in the object: "Submission for the 2025 SIET best paper prize". The author may submit more than one paper. Papers could be jointly written (without age requirement for co-authors), but it must be presented by the candidate, regularly registered to the conference.

The scientific committee in charge of the selection process is composed by the current and past SIET Presidents, by the Secretary or their delegates. The Paper Awards Committee is responsible for the winner(s)'s selection. The prize will be awarded during the XXVII SIET Conference, "Resilient and sustainable transport and tourism: evidence, strategies and policies". The winner must receive in person the award.
